Participant FAQ

1. When is the convoy and what time do I arrive?

The convoy is Saturday, September 23rd and all drivers are asked to arrive no later than 8am. Registration will open at 7am.

2. Where exactly do I go?

You will be going to DND Shearwater. Traffic services will be there to greet you and direct you onto the base for marshalling.

3. What do I do when I arrive?

Upon arrival our welcome team from Wolseley Canada and the LETR will direct you on all you need to know. They will direct you to TEME Building 32 for check in and registration.

4. What is the process once I arrive at the registration area?

Once you arrive our team will greet you and welcome you to the convoy. There will be two sets of tables lining the entrance into the hangar. Simply visit one of the volunteers seated there. They will check you in and provide further instructions on what to do next.

5. I have been collecting pledges, what do I do with them? Can I turn them in before the convoy?

All pledges will be collected on the day of the convoy. Once you complete the registration process, you will be directed to the pledge collection station to turn in your pledges. You can choose to bring one cheque for all the cash you have collected, or you can make one visa/interact transaction for the cash pledges you have collected.

6. I am trying to get lead truck, how will I know if I won?

There will be a "leader" board stationed in the centre of the registration area where we will post up who is in the lead for Lead Truck.

7. T-shirts – where will I get mine and can I purchase extras?

You will get your shirt upon completion of the check-in process. There will be a t-shirt station set up where you will be given the size previously indicated. There will also be T-shirts for sale for adults and youths as well as convoy hats. They will all be $10 each.

8. Can I bring extra guests with me that are not indicated on the registration forms?

On the registration form, there is a box that asks you how many guests you will be bringing with you. Please indicate an accurate amount of guests you intend to bring as space is limited.

9. Can I purchase addition tickets for the BBQ?

Yes you can. You get two free tickets to the BBQ in your driver bag. Additional ones can be bought onsite for $5.00.

10. Will there be a raffle again this year?

Yes, we will once again have a raffle for some great prizes and a silent auction as well. Tickets and winnings can be paid for onsite with visa/master card/debit.

11. What is the route of the convoy?

You can see the route here: <http://truckconvoyns.ca/drive/route/>

12. Where can I see what other companies and drivers are participating in the convoy?

Check out our list of registered drivers and companies here:
<http://truckconvoyns.ca/drive/registered-participants/>

13. Will there be any safety information we need to know on the day?

Yes, our partners with the Law Enforcement have asked us to be mindful of the rules of the road and proper safety restraints in the vehicles. All passengers must be in a safety harness and children should be in proper child safety seats. More route specific information will be shared on the day of the convoy.
